APPLICATION FOR TRANSFER OF CONTROL

I. BACKGROUND.

A. Description Of The Transaction.

On December 15, 2004, Sprint Corporation ("Sprint") and Nextel Communications, Inc. ("Nextel") (collectively the "Applicants" or the "Parties") entered into an agreement for a merger of equals to combine operations and assets valued at approximately $70 billion.¹ Sprint and

¹ The parties have agreed to merge Nextel into S-N Merger Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Sprint. The merger will be achieved through a stock-for-stock transaction, with Nextel shareholders receiving 1.28 shares of Sprint common stock, as well as approximately $0.50 in cash for each Nextel common share. The foregoing estimate of the stock/cash allocation is based on facts existing on December 15, 2004, the date of the Sprint Nextel merger announcement. Existing Sprint shares will remain outstanding. All Nextel capital stock will be cancelled at the effective time of the merger. The actual stock/cash allocation is subject to adjustment in order to facilitate the spin-off of Sprint's incumbent local telecommunications business on a tax-free basis, and will be determined
